SCHOOL OF LAW
Founded 1927

Founded in 1927, Pacific Coast University School of Law has been educating students for nearly 100 years. Our 100% online Juris Doctor (JD) degree program prepares you for the California Bar Exam and a successful career in law. PCU's curriculum covers all California Bar tested subjects, and our experienced staff and faculty are ready to guide you to success. PCU is ideal for working adults seeking a quality and affordable law school experience. Our online classes are typically held on Monday and Wednesday evenings. This flexibility allows our students to pursue a legal education without compromising their professional and/or personal obligations.

ABA-APPROVED VS. CALIFORNIA-ACCREDITED VS. CALIFORNIA REGISTERED UNACCREDITED LAW SCHOOLS

- Graduates from ABA-approved schools can sit for the bar exam in any U.S. State upon completion of their Juris Doctor degree program.
- Graduates from California-accredited law schools can sit for the California bar exam upon completion of their Juris Doctor Degree program.

Pursuant to Guideline 2.3(D) of the Guidelines for Unaccredited Law School Rules, PCU makes the following disclosures:

"The method of instruction at this law school for the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program is principally by technological means including interactive classes."

"Students enrolled in the J.D. degree program at this law school who successfully complete the first year of law study must pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination required by Business and Professions Code § 6060(h) and Title 4, Division 1, Chapter 1 Rule 4.3(l) of the Rules of the State Bar of California as part of the requirements to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. A student who passes the First-Year Law Students' Examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive credit for all legal studies completed to the time the examination is passed. A student who does not pass the examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it must be promptly disqualified from the law school's J.D. degree program. If the dismissed student subsequently passes the examination, the student is eligible for re-enrollment in the law school's J.D. degree program, but will receive credit for only one year of legal study."

"Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice in jurisdictions other than California. A student intending to seek admission to practice law in a jurisdiction other than California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law."
